Accessing Noteflight Learn

Context

Noteflight Learn is a learning technology used by Open Access College which enables students to create, edit, notate and play notated music. Our Noteflight Learn instance is integrated with Google Classroom, a learning management system used by some teachers at the College to deliver teaching and learning resources.
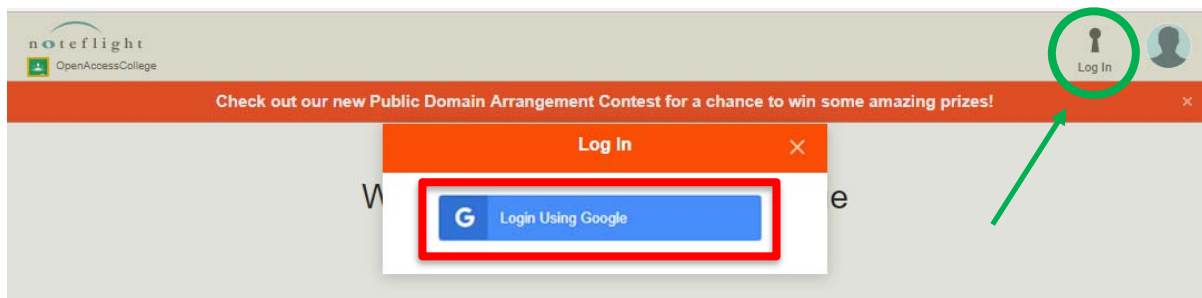

Objective

This help sheet is designed to orient and guide you through the process logging into Noteflight Learn with your College-issued Google account.

Assumptions made

You know the username and password to your College-issued Google account.

Log into Noteflight Learn

1. Visit https://openaccesscollege.gc.noteflight.com and then click on the Log In button in the top-right corner.

2. Click the Login Using Google button.

3. Login using your College-issued Google account credentials.

For staff, the e-mail address for your College-issued Google account is usually in the standard format of firstname.lastname@openaccesscollegesa.com.

For students, the e-mail address for your College-issued Google account is usually in the standard format of XXYYYY@openaccesscollegesa.com, where XXYYYY is your student identification number.

If your Google account is registered with Noteflight Learn

Your Google account is registered with a Google Classroom that has been integrated with Noteflight Learn. You will be logged into Noteflight Learn and will see your account page with any scores you've been working on.

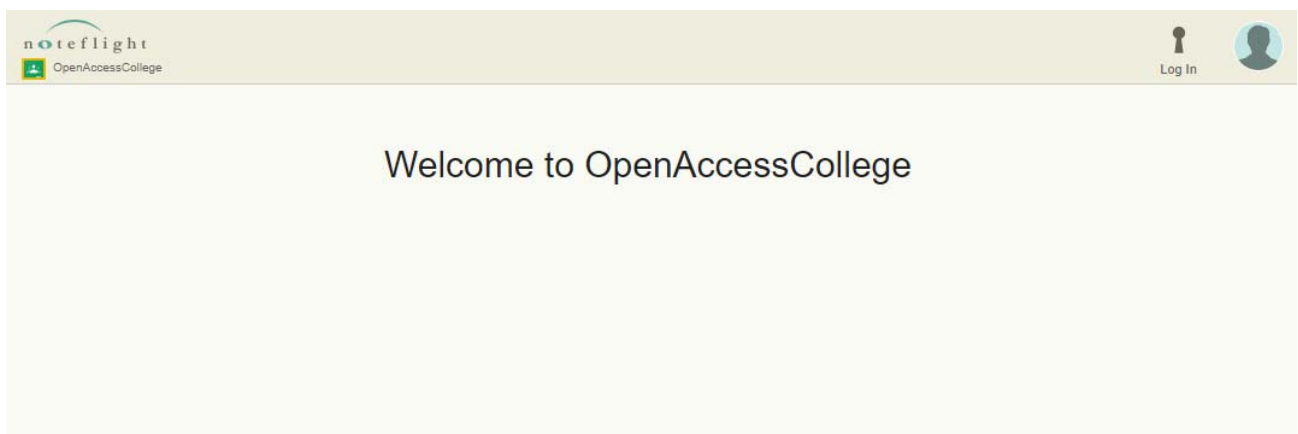

If your Google account isn't registered with a Noteflight Learn

Your Google account isn't registered with a Google Classroom that has been integrated with Noteflight Learn. You won't be logged into Noteflight Learn and will returned to the login page observed at Step 1.

If you're a teacher at the College and wish to use Noteflight Learn for your teaching, please contact Learning Technology Services to have your Google Classroom class integrated with the platform.

If you're a student at the College and wish to use Noteflight Learn for your studies, please contact your teacher.
